OFFICIAL PAPER OF YOLO COUNTY,
WOODLAND, CAL.
Thursday, May 4th, 1876.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION

Rooms of the Democratic State Central Committee, San Francisco, April 12th, 1876.
At a meeting of the State Central Committee, held this day, the following resolutions were passed:

That the State Convention shall be, and is hereby called to meet in Union Hall, San Francisco, on WEDNESDAY, May 24th, at noon, to elect twelve Delegates to the National Democratic Convention, and nominate Presidential Electors.
That the members from each Congressional District to said State Convention, by and by hereby empowered, to nominate Members of Congress for their respective Congressional Districts, at such time and place as they may determine upon; and
That the basis of representation shall be: One delegate for each county, one delegate for every 200 votes, and one delegate for every fraction of 100 votes and over, cast for Irwin for Governor.
That the matter of selecting Delegates to the State Convention shall be determined by the County Committees of the respective counties; and
That all persons who intend to vote for the nominees of the Democratic party at the ensuing election, shall be entitled to vote at any primary election held under this call.

The apportionment is as follows:
Alameda 10
Alpine 1
Butte 1
Calaveras 1
Colusa 1
Contra Costa 1
El Dorado 1
Fresno 1
Humboldt 1
Imperial 1
Lake 1
Los Angeles 1
Marin 1
Mariposa 1
Merced 1
Modoc 1
Monterey 1
Napa 1
Placer 1
Plumas 1
Total 10
Ordered to be published in the Examiner, and a copy sent to the Chairman of the several County Committees.
PETER DONAHUE, Chairman.
J. C. MATHIAS, Secretary.

A FIRE at Williamsport, Penn., April 29th, destroyed eight million feet of lumber. Loss estimated at $125,000. It burned over eight acres of ground.

The New York Independent Radical Central Committee has completed its organization. This is popularly known as a revolt against the "Custom-House ring."

THE DANCE.—The social party and dance at Central Hall on the evening of May Day was very largely attended and passed off pleasantly. Our informant says the hall was crowded.

STATISTICIAN.—The April No. is received, and like its predecessors is running over with information useful to all classes of business men. L. P. McCarthy, publisher, San Francisco, $2.50 a year.

FOURTH OF JULY MEETING.—All that was done the other evening towards the Centennial Independence Celebration was the election of J. K. Smith, Chairman, who can call a meeting at any time. We would suggest Saturday evening next, if in order.

THE N. Y. Herald says when Tilden goes to St. Louis the New York delegates will support him on the ground that the nomination of Samuel J. Tilden to the office of President would insure the vote of New York, and would be approved throughout the Union.

AN OLD RESIDENT.—Mr. J. L. Gandy, now of Colusa County, formerly a resident of this place, called on us a few days since looking and feeling well. Since leaving here six years ago, Mr. Gandy has raised an orchard into bearing condition and is prospering. He takes the Democrat in order to keep posted on Yolo matters.

LAW DAY—DISTRICT COURT.—The District Court will convene at 9 A. M. to-morrow (Friday) for the hearing of motions, etc., and the setting of cases for trial. Attorneys desiring business attended to at this session of the Court had better be promptly at hand, as the Judges are obliged to return to Sacramento on the same day.

LA CREME DE LA CREME.—No. 29 of this musical monthly is received, and is just what its name indicates, the cream of the cream. The contents of the present number are: Forest Birding, bluetie, by Spindler, with sheet form 40 cents; He Loves Me, romance, by Egghard, with 50 cents; Les Bourds du Gange, caprice, by Leybach, 60 cents. All these pieces are furnished in this number for 50 cents monthly for one year, $4. Published by J. L. Peters, 843 Broadway, New York.

ANOTHER TRAIL.—The investigations by the Special Committee of the House of Representatives at Washington, reveal the fact that ex-Attorney-General Williams is a thief of the first water. He is called upon to explain what he did with $250,000, which appear upon the records of the Department to have been drawn by him, and he can give no satisfactory account to the Committee. Also to account for $5,000 drawn from the treasury to run Mrs. Williams' criminal son from the country. Great Jupiter! when will those sickening revelations cease?

HOMICIDE IN WASHINGTON.—At midnight of Monday last two watchmen named James Conroy and Charles B. Baird, stationed at the Washington end of the Sacramento river railroad bridge, got into altercation which resulted in Conroy being shot and killed by Baird, the latter says in self defense. Baird immediately gave himself up to the Sacramento police. He was afterward taken before Justice Crouse of Washington for examination which he passed and was brought to Woodland and confined in jail to await trial in the County Court.

THE PROPOSED NEW SILVER DOLLAR.—The amendments which Senator Morrill submitted, and gave notice that he should offer to the pending bill in regard to silver coin, are as follows: To make the weight of the new silver dollar 450 grains instead of 412 3/4 grains; to make its legal tender limit five dollars, in any one payment, instead of twenty dollars; to make the new silver dollar exchangeable by the Secretary of the Treasury for United States notes of denominations of less than five dollars, commencing with the lowest, instead of all United States notes to be thus retired; to insert a new section providing that after 50,000 of the new silver dollars shall have been issued, they shall thereafter be issued only in exchange for gold coin, at par; finally, in place of Bogy's amendment to fix the legal relative value of gold and silver at 15 1/2 to 1, Mr. Morrill proposes to make it 17 1/2 to 1.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21st, 1876.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.
There is one thing which we desire to see impressed upon the Democrats throughout the Union, and upon which all should be united as a step toward the success in the Presidential campaign. There should be no question of preferences in the matter. All local interests, all sectional differences, must be overlooked, and to secure our ascendancy for the next four years.

There are hundreds of able men in the Democratic party who possess all the elements necessary to make a good President, and yet we never hear their names mentioned in that connection. The simple reason is to be found in the fact that these men, while personally unobjectionable, and many of them extremely popular, are not, in the present state of affairs, available candidates. Again, there are quite a number who may be called, in a certain sense, available, yet there are States which it is doubtful if they can carry. In looking over the political field, it must strike every one the casual observer that all signs now point with unerring certainty to the Democrats being the key to the next Presidential election. These States are New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. The people of these States take the key to the political field, and the combinations which it is necessary to secure, if they can carry, will be the key to the position. This triad of States must be ours, and delegates to St. Louis will not properly neglect certainly to devote the key to the position. Our candidate must, necessarily, be a man of high standing, of unimpeachable political record, and committed beyond question to reform. Other men can stand any chance of election, but all past experience compels the fact that if such a man can secure the electoral votes of the three States named, he can beat Morton and the bloody shirt; Baine, and all the blunders of the amnesty question, and Conklin, with the whole power of the administration behind him.

It is very represented in the House, this session. On the floor, in the Committee room, and in private circles, you hear as many progressive ideas, as fervent aspirations for honest government, and economy in the administration of public affairs, as strong expressions of pride in and love for the whole country—the Nation—from Southern members, as from those of the North. Among the most able, independent, and patriotic members of the 44th Congress is Hon. H. D. Money, whom the people of the District of Columbia, and the people of the Nation, have elected to represent them. Mr. Money is a finely educated young man, a former member of the District of Columbia, and a former member of the House of Representatives. He is now, I believe, President of the University of Mississippi.

MORE ABOUT GRANT'S NOBIL PRIZES. A NEW MINE EXPLORED.

The testimony taken before the House District Committee, in the investigation of the Board of Health, shows a state of affairs that is anything but complimentary to the honesty of Dr. Cox and Bliss, who "run" that institution. The Committee met in secret session, but it is known that C. Bradley, one of the original bidders for removing night soil, testified that in 1873, he was paid $2,000 by the Odorous Excavating Company, to which his firm, which was considerably larger than their own; that, to his personal knowledge, Drs. C. Cox and D. W. Bliss, of the Board of Health, received $10,000 from the company with a guarantee of at least 7 per cent. interest, in consideration of the fact that the company was then afterwards awarded to the Odorous Excavating Company; that Dr. Cox and Bliss received their stock in the company, until they both sold out their stock at a short time ago; and that the exposure that would result from a threatened investigation.

It may be said, in connection with the above, that when the Sergeant-at-Arms endeavored to find Painter and Kesley, prominent members of the company, in Baltimore, which city they usually make their headquarters, they were not to be found, and had no inkling of the whereabouts of the company. They were found, however, here in Washington, cloistered with Cox and Bliss, in the office of the Board of Health. Painter and Kesley have been before the Committee; and it is understood have testified substantially as did Bradley. At any rate Bliss has confessed that he and Cox received the stock, as stated; but explains that they were interested in the Odorous Excavating Company, and that the contract was made in this city; that after the machines were brought to Washington, certain improvements were made, for which they (Bliss and Cox) demanded more stock, which was paid over. Dr. Bliss does not attempt to explain why he and Cox, Government officials, felt justified in awarding a contract to themselves virtually; or why, afterwards, they shielded their agents in an organized attempt to defraud the citizens of Washington, in the very face of numbers and in-dignant protests. The sequel will be looked to with interest.

WASHINGTON.

WORLD NOT WORK.—After the nomination of a ticket for town officers by the Democrats, our Republican friends pretended to feel very sorry that party lines should have been drawn, and candidates placed in nomination by the Democrats. Said they—we ought to put up a Citizens' ticket in our little local election, and not let "party" come into the matter at all. But the Democrats knew how this sly little game had worked before when acquiesced in, and that it is invariably resulted in foisting a Republican Board upon the town, contrary to the wish of the people. So they called a "Citizens'" Convention which was quite largely attended by Republicans, and managed entirely by Republicans, and then four Republicans to two Democrats were nominated, notwithstanding the fact that the town was known to be Democratic on a straight party vote. But the plan proved a failure, and not a candidate nominated except those already on the Democratic ticket was elected. All the candidates were good men, and the probability is that if a straight Republican ticket had been put in the field, one or two of the candidates would have been elected. But as it is, the voters are satisfied. The people are weary of Republican trickery nowadays. They don't like duplicity.
